

NEAR EASTERN STUDIES MINOR APPLICATION

1. To complete a minor in Near Eastern Studies, students must take five NES courses (minimum 15 credits) that meet the following conditions:

(1) At least three courses should be at the 3000 level or above.

(2) Two language courses at the 2000 or 3000 level may count towards the minor.

(3) Three (or more) courses will explore the history, archaeology, literature, or religions of the Near East. Students may choose to focus on one of these disciplines or on the ancient, late antique, medieval, or modern periods across the disciplines.

Please Note: No more than one independent study, one non-NES cross-listed course, and one departmentally approved course taken overseas or at another university may be applied toward the minor.

2. Instructions:

Step 1: Obtain an unofficial copy of your Cornell transcript. You may request this on line at <transcript.cornell.edu> or stop by the University Registrar office in B-07 Day Hall.

Step 2: Complete the student section of this form.

Step 3: Please bring transcript and form to Professor Deborah Starr, Director of Undergraduate Studies (DUS), or email forms to das86@cornell.edu for approval. Please return completed and signed forms to Chris Capalongo, 409 White Hall.
